The diagram illustrates the progression of 16 players through four rounds of a tournament. The players are listed in four columns, with their names and scores (e.g., 11-8, 11-7, 11-4) shown in a box. The scores are then shown in a box next to the player's name. The players are then grouped into four groups of four, with the scores shown in a box next to the group's name. The groups are then grouped into two groups of two, with the scores shown in a box next to the group's name. Finally, the two groups of two are grouped into a single group, with the scores shown in a box next to the group's name.
